ARW PUBLICATIONS ACARD.—THE ATTENTION OF THE UNDERSIGNED A having been called to a book, just published, entitled, "Cone-Cue Corners," which centains injurious statements respecting the late firm of Bagglehall, Floric & Co., to the effect that they were in the habit of imposing upon their numerous customers by selling vile manufactured liquors for pure, genuine articles, I deem it but justice to myself, as well as the friends offthe late firm, to deny these charges in the most emphatic manner. No article of liquor was ever sold by Bragglehall, Floric & Co., which was not genuine and precisely as represented. I am aware that some calling themselves "respectable dealers" are in the habit of manufacturing spurious articles, but am proud to be able to declare that no firm of which I have ever been a member has been guilty of such practices. Whether I shall seek legal redress's against tip perpetrators of this outrage, in the present unsatisfactory state of the laws, must depend on circumstances. Meanwhile, I haston to make this public desiral of the charges.

C. FOSTEE'S LAST AND BEST LOCAL WORK IN NEW YORK NAKED, by GRORGE G FOSTER.
Author of "New York by Gaslight," "Fifteen Minutes Around New York," "Cello," &c.
The title of this book is unique and peculiar. It means that without fear or favor, both men and things are shown up in this writer's brilliant and striking siyle—in a word that, stripped of the clock that the hand of charity would throw over it, throw over it,

THE GREAT METROPOLIS
stands forth to public view with all its great virtues and great vices, painted by the hand of a master. It is by far the best of this writer's works.

been sung by her with great colat in the principal cities of the United States; and the subscriber deems himself called upon by the recent wholesale piracy of his private manuscripts, to give publicity to the above, in the vain hope that hereafter he may be able to protect authors and artists in some measure from the unprincipled use of individual preperty. W. J. FLOKENCE, Comedian.

A. & I. I. BENJAMIN'S. EXCURSION AND Its Grove Concert is postponed (on account of the rain an Treaday night) to Saturday, June 23. The proprietary regret the change of time, but deemed it imprudent to take or large a company to a wet grove, even if it should not rain while on the ground. The same tickets, and all other arrangements the same as advertised for Wednesday. N. S.—There will be no further postponement.
